

MICHAEL H. SEIBEL
Family Visitation &
Exchange Center

OUR MISSION

- The Michael H. Seibel Family Visitation and Exchange Center will facilitate the exchange and visitation of children by and between custodial and non-custodial parties while monitoring and maintaining safety for all participants.
- The Seibel Center was named after the late Honorable Judge Michael H. Seibel, who was dedicated to ending violence against women and children.

OUR GUIDING PRINCIPLES

- Every family will present a unique set of circumstances every time they access services.
- Every adult victim and their child(ren) has a right to safety.
- Every individual served has a right to respectful interactions.
- On-going multiple-discipline community partnerships provide a framework for systemic change.
- Domestic violence is not a family problem; it is a public safety issue.

ABOUT US

WHAT IS A SUPERVISED VISITATION / EXCHANGE CENTER?

It is a safe setting in which custodial and non-custodial party may visit their children or exchange the children between themselves. Situations that may require the use of the center include: individuals involved in domestic violence, orders for protection, harassment orders, or divorcing individuals with conflict. In most cases, parties will be court-ordered to use the center, referred through legal actions, or are self-referred.

TO UTILIZE THE SEIBEL CENTER

All parties must schedule and attend an orientation. Orientations must take place in person and will last approximately one hour. During the orientation, you can expect to:

- Fill out documentation
- Tour facility and learn about the Seibel Center
- Discuss policies, procedures, and address any questions

The Seibel Center charges a fee based on an individual's gross income. In some cases, the courts will assign a percentage of payment responsibility. In the absence of courts assignment, parties will be assigned a 50% split of fees. All fees will be prepaid.
